ABOUT ME

I am a banking and compliance professional building practical expertise in UBO review and unveiling. My work involves reviewing customer account-opening packages, checking documents for completeness and consistency, and using the UBO Portal to support identification of the ultimate owner.

CURRENT ROLE

Fidelity Bank — Compliance Unit | February 2025 – Present | UBO Review & Unveiling

- Review customer account-opening packages and examine supporting documents individually for completeness and consistency.
- Use the UBO Portal to support identification and unveiling of the ultimate beneficial owner behind customer accounts.
- Cross-check ownership and control information across relevant customer documents.
- Identify missing, inconsistent or unclear documentation requiring clarification, correction or escalation.
- Support KYC, customer due diligence and beneficial ownership compliance through careful documentation review.
- Maintain confidentiality, accuracy and attention to detail when handling customer and account information.
